DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of Group I (claim 1) and pyridoxal-5-phosphate in the reply filed on 01/31/2008 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claims 2-49 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 01/31/2008.

Claim Objections

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: the claimed method is incomplete insofar as no subject/patient is provided for the active step, "administering". Applicant can overcome this rejection by adding, for example, "to a subject in need thereof" at the end of the sentence. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Amadio et al. (Neuropharmacology; Volume 42, Issue 4, March 2002 (available online 30 January 2002):489-501).

The reference teaches that pyridoxal-5-phosphate (P5P) consistently protects cerebellar granule neurons (CGN) from cell death by ~80% when administered to the CGN (Fig. 5c at page 496 and the second column at page 494).

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 1 is provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-12 of copending Application No. 11/739,920. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the copending claims are directed towards treating atrial fibrillation (AF). It is well known that AF can lead to a stroke; this is supported in the instant specification at ¶ 0005. AF would inherently involve cell death since it can lead to stroke, a disease where necrosis is a pathological consequence.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim 1 is provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-3, 6, 8-10, 13, 15-17 of copending Application No. 11/564,192. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the copending claims are directed towards treating atrial fibrillation (AF). It is well known that AF can lead to a stroke; this is supported in the instant specification at ¶ 0005. AF would inherently involve cell death since it can lead to stroke, a disease where necrosis is a pathological consequence.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Conclusion

No claims are allowed.
